

ATTACHED ACCESSORIES COVERAGE

Sometimes the simple luxuries are the ones that satisfy you most. Like enjoying a cold glass of water on a hot day while lounging beneath your RV's awning. Or watching one of the 175 channels of television your new satellite dish brings to you. Would your insurance pay to repair or replace these items if they were damaged by a windstorm or tree limb?

ATTACHED ACCESSORIES COVERAGE. Many RVers insure their motor home or travel trailer on their auto policy. Unfortunately, most auto policies don't provide coverage for attached accessories like awnings, satellite dishes, solar panels, A/C units, antennas, special mirrors and other permanently attached accessories...unless an amendatory endorsement that specifically includes coverage for these items is attached to the policy.

A Foremost RV policy automatically provides coverage for all of these items, no matter if they're destroyed accidentally by you, or by Mother Nature. Plus, permanently attached accessories are covered up to the limit on your policy even if you add them to your RV later.†

Your travel trailer's three-year-old awning, now worth $1,050, is destroyed during a sudden thunderstorm.

FOREMOST SETTLEMENT*
$1,050.00

Don't worry, your destroyed awning (and other accessories) is automatically covered under a Foremost policy. Now that's coverage you can count on!

TYPICAL AUTO POLICY SETTLEMENT

So much for that "bargain" auto insurance policy. You really don't know until you have read your auto policy. Most auto policies have special coverage limitations for accessories added to the vehicle. In all cases, you have to make a special effort to purchase and confirm coverage for accessories.

† We prefer that you contact Foremost or your agent within 30 days after adding accessories to your RV to ensure that there is sufficient policy coverage in the event of a total loss.

* Actual settlement depends on the deductible chosen.

 Amendatory endorsements may change policy language to include limited coverage. An extra cost will likely apply.

The Foremost settlement shown above is based on coverage found in Foremost motor home and travel trailer policies common to most states. Please consult the Foremost policy endorsements for your state for specific policy language and limits.
